

2024 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION / RENEWAL

Members of the Iowa Housing Partnership can expect a coordinated message regarding housing issues at all levels of the spectrum. This effort will ensure a cohesive and coordinated advocacy effort at the local, state, and federal levels.

Mission Statement

Iowa Housing Partnership works to promote a unified voice in promoting the preservation and production of affordable housing for all Iowans through statewide, national education and advocacy, using accurate and timely information for all decision-makers.

We offer a variety of annual membership options. Members are strongly encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of the Partnership, at which time members will review the Partnership's finances and activities, and future goals and objectives. In addition, the Partnership will host various membership and community meetings throughout the year that are open to anyone interested in supporting our cause and efforts.

To apply for membership, please select a membership category below and return this form along with your information and membership fee payment to:
